

Troy Helps Out

Let's head over to look at the fish first.

Troy and his Dad are at the food store.
Dad says, "Troy, you are in charge."
Dad shows Troy the list.
"Read the list and tell me what we need."
says Dad.

“Look! Trout! And big crab claws!”
Troy points to a tray and asks,
“What are these, Dad?”
Dad says, “Those are prawns.
Prawns are shrimp.”

Troy and dad walk past a shelf of toys. “Toys are not on the list,” Troy thinks. He tells his dad, “Next we need to get bread, sprouts, and oil.”

Troy helps Dad get all the things on the list. “Thank you, Troy! I think this can be your new job!” Dad says.

Troy smiles a proud smile. “Yes, I will get the food and you can cook it!”
