

A Day at the Playground (11A)

Target Phonics: Beginning Blends (s blends)

Target Phonics Words	Review Phonics Words		Irregular High Frequency Words (HFW)
skips	VC/CVC	Digraphs	New HFW
smell	dog	that*	want
snack	hot	then*
spin	is*	with*	Review HFW
Stef	it*		N/A
steps	kids
stop	run
	tag
	up*
	yum

Additional Notes/Tips

- Playground is a story word and is not decodable.
- Note that the books in this collection assume that kids know the high frequency words from Collection 1. See Collection 1 Scope and Sequence for the list of high frequency words.

Text Introduction

“Let’s read the title of this book together, A Day at the Playground. Look at all the kids, they are at the playground! Have you ever been to a playground? It’s fun, right? These kids are having fun too!”

“You’ll see that Stef is enthusiastic about going to the playground, but after playing all day, she becomes enthusiastic about something else. Say enthusiastic. It means when you are really, really excited about something. Read to find out what Stef feels enthusiastic about.”

Discussion

- “What did Stef and other other kids feel enthusiastic about at the end of the book?”
- “How do you know how they felt?”

*indicates decodable high frequency word